Hi Claire, I emailed you last Tuesday not sure it went through just thought I'd resend the email hope that okay.

Since I last met you I've filmed another coffee morning as well as edited the video into a shorter more coherent edit. I've not currently added in any soundtrack yet although, I have added what the end screen could look like, which will be using the video I've recorded at the events and won't have to have a facebook link it could be information about times of events or cont

Could you have a look at it and let me know what you think? If you have any ideas?

Also, I remember you said that it might be a good idea to put the video up on to the salvation army Mosborough website, perhaps rather than helping Linda create a facebook page. whe

Thanks,

Dale

Dale,

Please accept my apologies. I have just found the emails I haven't yet responded to and I'm sorry this has slipped by.

I love the look of the draft edit - unfortunately, with the work system, I'm struggling with audio (I can't tap into any) but from the visual of how you are presenting the corps as a vibrant, frie

Definitely share your videos through the Facebook group, but if you'd like them to be added to the web page, email digital@salvationarmy.org.uk to request this (copy in your corps leade event videos.

How is college going for you? Are you still enjoying your time?

Claire

Hi, Claire

It's alright I understand, thanks for the feedback.

Talk about the music,

I'll add in the other videos into the Facebook Group, I'm going to talk to Linda about what she wants changing at the moment a few details are wrong so after I've talked to her on Sunday I'll email (digital@salvationarmy.org.uk) and link Linda into it thanks for getting back to me.

College is going well, I've finished my Poetic documentary. I'm currently working on a fictional piece for the residential imaging on in March.

It sounds like you've been busy, Dale! Hope the college course is coming together well - what's the fictional piece you're working on?

Look forward to seeing the other videos on the website/Facebook group soon.

Hi Claire,

Before I email you you said to Linda just wanted to make sure with you that the following can be corrected.

Hi Dale

This is great. Can we check with Claire about updating the website with a picture of where we are and with my up to date details of Army e-mail and my mobile number?

Many thanks

Linda

Ps: College is going well, I'm working in a crew to create an artistic short film which will be filmed in Whitby.

Thanks,

Dale

Hi Dale,

That's no problem at all. The digital team would be happy to help with those updates.

Great to hear about the filming in Whitby (great place to capture any footage - so atmospheric!). What are you filming?

Hi, Claire

The website has been updated detail wise, I've sent the video to be looked at just waiting for the digital team to get back to me about the video.

It's going to be an artistic non-dialogue silent film about a person who is in a sort of limbo between worlds, who is stuck in a looped cycle always going back to the beach.

Thanks,

Dale
